HELLO!

I'm Magda

I am the owner and creator of Malomi Kids, a brand born from my passion for design and love for children's fashion. With a background in graphic design, my professional journey began in the corporate fashion industry, where I spent years gaining experience and climbing the career ladder. I was involved in building one of Poland's retail chains, which provided me with invaluable knowledge and inspiration to create my own brand.

For me, design is not just a profession—it is a true passion. I love creating unique patterns and prints that have become the hallmark of my brand. Malomi Kids is a space where I combine aesthetics, precision, and attention to every detail to offer high-quality products.

My designs are created for the most demanding audience—children and their parents—who appreciate originality, comfort, and beauty.

Every product I design is the result of my endless creativity—a mind full of ideas that I strive to bring to life. It brings me great joy to watch Malomi Kids grow each day, giving me the opportunity to share my passion with others.

Malomi Kids is more than just a company—it is my life, my passion, and my heart, poured into every project.

COLLECTION - SOUL FULL OF SUNSHINE

Soul Full of Sunshine is a summer state of mind – light, effortless, and made to move with you from beach mornings to golden evenings. This collection reimagines comfort through soft, breathable bamboo terry, designed as versatile ponchos for both adults and children, alongside matching beach hats, hooded towels, backpacks, and belt bags.

Crafted in a palette of delicate pastels and finished with decorative cords, each piece blends function with quiet elegance. Bamboo fabric naturally dries quickly, feels exceptionally gentle on the skin, and offers a fresh, airy touch – perfect for sun-soaked days.

More than just beachwear, Soul Full of Sunshine is about ease, warmth, and carrying a little sunshine with you, wherever you go.
